

WADE METCALF
Project Manager

Graduate - Bailey Institute of Technology, 1979 St. Louis Missouri

Senior Civil Technician

EXPERIENCE HISTORY

May 2000 to Present –

Project Manager for Bowen Engineering & Surveying, Cape Girardeau, Missouri. Responsibilities include design and plan production and construction engineering services for municipal roadway and wastewater projects, residential and commercial planning and site development. Other work includes assisting in the soil and concrete testing laboratory and providing inspection services for residential and commercial construction projects.

March 1988 to April 2000 –

Civil Technician for Bowen Engineering & Surveying, Cape Girardeau, Missouri. Responsible for producing topographic and hydrographic survey drawings for projects under contract with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Served as a construction inspector and quality control agent on numerous projects ranging from buildings, bridges, wastewater and streets. Assisted in the materials laboratory conducting tests on concrete, soils and aggregates. Assisted in on-site concrete and soils testing for municipal bridge and roadway projects.

October 1979 to February 1988 –

Civil and Survey Technician for S.H. Smith & Company, Poplar Bluff, Missouri. Responsible for assisting in the design and plan production of municipal streets, bridges, sanitary sewer and waterline systems. Served as a construction inspector and quality control agent on numerous projects ranging from buildings, airports, wastewater and streets. Assisted in the materials laboratory conducting tests on concrete, soils and aggregates. Responsible for leading a team of geotechnical soil drillers and samplers. Also, assisted on field surveys as-needed.